

Now what is love

Robert Jones

5

Now what is love, I pray thee tell, It is that Now what is love, I pray thee say, It is a Now what is love, I pray thee fain, It is a Yet what is love, I pray thee say, It is a Now what is love, I pray thee show, A thing that pent- ance dwell; It is per- haps that sans- ing bell match'd with May, When lus- ty blood in fresh ar- ray pleas- ing pain, A flow'r that dies and springs a- gain, night as day; It is a thing will soon de- cay, to and fro, A thing for one, a thing for moe,

That tolls all in to heav'n or hell,
 Hear ten months af- ter of their play,
 It is a no that would full fain,
 Then take the van- tage whilst you may,
 And he that proves shall find it so,

And this is love, and this is love, as
 And this is love, and this is love, as
 And this is love, and this is love, as
 And this is love, and this is love, as
 And this is love, and this is love, as

I hear - tell, tell.
 I hear - say, say.
 I hear - saine, saine.
 I hear - say, say.
 I well - know, know.
