

251. Pavane - Lachrimae

John Dowland

The image displays a lute tablature for the piece 'Pavane - Lachrimae' by John Dowland. The score is written on a six-line staff, with letters (a, b, g, e, f, r) placed on the lines to indicate fret positions. Rhythmic notation is represented by vertical stems with flags, and some notes have flags above them. The piece is divided into measures, with measure numbers 5, 10, 15, 20, and 25 marked at the beginning of their respective lines. The tablature includes various rhythmic patterns and melodic lines, with some measures containing multiple notes on the same line. The letters used are a, b, g, e, f, and r, which correspond to the fret positions on the lute strings.
